Music With: Aly Aleigha

Though she always had a deep love for the arts, Aly Aleigha's musical talent was only ever expressed in her bedroom for most of her life. Aleigha has been writing songs and stories for as long as she can remember, though she did not seriously pick up an instrument until high school. Petrified of being the center of attention yet unable to contain the musical drive swelling inside her, Aly began to play guitar and sing at Church events in her high school years. "It has always been much easier to play at Church, because then it's less about me and more about glorifying the Lord," says Aleigha. During her studies at Franciscan University in Steubenville, OH, Aly's parents encouraged her to record an album, she felt she was being called out of her comfort zone cutting her first EP (4-track album). Aleigha moved to Duluth, MN for work, where she met the rest of her band. The band's unique, eclectic sound drew national attention. In the same month after releasing their first full-length album, The Labyrinth, the indie-american music group was invited to perform and receive the 2016 "Emerging Artist Award" at AbbeyFest in Pennsylvania. We are blessed and overjoyed to have Aly and her group provide our Music Ministry 2017. <http://www.aly-aleigha.com>
